DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-7, 11-14 and 26, drawn to a microcapsule containing cells containing a polynucleotide construct comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter, a method of treating a host using said microcapsule and a method of making said microcapsule.

Group II, claim(s) 15-21, drawn to a polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter.

Group III, claim(s) 22-25, drawn to a cell comprising a polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The Groups appear to be linked by the special technical feature of the polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter. However, PCT Rule 13.2 requires that unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. WO 98/26066 (18.06.98) discloses a polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter (see especially the first paragraph on page 3 and the first and second paragraphs on page 6). Thus, Groups I-III lack a unifying special technical feature that is a contribution over the prior art.

The special technical feature of Group I is the microencapsulated cell, method of making and method of using said microencapsulated cell.

Art Unit: 1636

The special technical feature of Group II is the polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter

The special technical feature of Group III is a cell comprising a polynucleotide comprising a coding sequence for a nitric oxide synthase operably linked to an ecdysone or tetracycline responsive promoter.

Accordingly, Groups I-III are not so linked by the same or corresponding special technical feature as to form a single inventive concept.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
